2 head for scandal in Tata firm's women's hostel

Over 2000 Stage A Protest, 200 Return Home

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Krishnakant: A woman and her boyfriend were arrested on Wednesday on charges of installing a hidden camera in a bathroom at a hostel for Tata Electronics Pvt Ltd women employees in Krishnakant district of Tamil Nadu, police said in a statement.

Dops said accused Neelakumari put the camera on boyfriend and co-accused Santhosh's instruction who stayed at the women's hostel, Vidyalay Residency in Lalitkhal area, and her boyfriend, Santhosh (29), who was arrested by police. Santhosh is an employee of the company at its Narsimharajam facility as instructed by Santhosh. Vidyalay Residency has 11 floors and eight blocks and provides accommodation for more than 6,000 women. Four women were staying in each room. The camera was installed on Sunday (Nov 2) in the bathroom of a room occupied by women from northern states, said ASP Shankar. Neelakumari was one of the occupants of that room. Other women staying in the room discovered the camera on Tuesday and reported it to the hostel management.

The discovery of the camera created tension among the hostel inmates. On Tuesday evening, more than 2,000 women residing in the hostel staged a protest. Following this incident, House additional collector, Ankur Sethi and SP P. Thirumangalakudi arrived at the scene. More than 100 police personnel were deployed to facilitate discussions and ensure safety.

Parents of many women employees gathered outside the hostel on Wednesday. Police pacified the women and their parents. More than 300 women staying in the hostel chose to return to their hometowns with their belongings.

ASP Shankar said they were checking the footage from the recovered camera. Ten police teams, comprising police women, were checking each room to determine whether there were more hidden cameras, he added.

Centre to order CBI probe into death of Punjab ex-DGP's son

New Delhi: Centre is set to order a CBI probe into the mysterious death of former Punjab DGP Mohan Lal Mehta and his son Akhinder Singh Mehta, a former Congress legislator from Punjab.

While Akhinder Singh Mehta had died of possible health complications due to drug overdose, the emergence of a video in which the deceased had made shocking allegations, including those of a purported affair with his father and his wife, led Haryana police to file an FIR and form a special investigation team (SIT) to look into the matter.

The FIR followed the receipt of a complaint by one Shantosh, a close acquaintance of the family and social media posts of Akhinder Singh Mehta, who was a police officer.

Should Covid period be counted in PhD time-frame, asks HC

Times News Network

Nagpur: The Nagpur bench of Bombay High Court on Tuesday sought a response from Nagpur University asking should the Covid-19 pandemic period be included in the stipulated time-frame for completing PhD research. HC directed the university's registrar to file a detailed reply within two weeks.

The division bench, comprising Justices Anil Kulkarni and Rajesh Vyas, was hearing a petition filed by researcher Prakash Shirsat. He argued that the Covid period severely disrupted his doctoral work, and therefore, should be excluded from the official research timeline.

According to the petition, Shirsat registered his PhD at NU on Nov 15, 2018, with his research tenure set to end on Nov 15, 2023. He applied to the university asking that the period from March 15, 2020, to Feb 16, 2022, which, he stated, was officially declared as the Covid period by the Supreme Court, be excluded from the computation of his PhD duration.

SC had directed that all time-bound proceedings should omit this period. Shirsat argued that NU rejected his plea. Aggrieved by the decision, Shirsat approached HC challenging the university's interpretation. HC observed that the issue raised a matter of fairness and consistency.

3 hurt as police, BSF jawans clash over seized cough syrup in Bengal

Chapra (Nadia): Police clash with BSF personnel in Nadia on Tuesday over the seizure of cough syrup (Phenylephrine). At least three policemen were injured in the incident, and one BSF jawan was briefly detained, sources said. The jawan was released on Wednesday after senior officers intervened, describing the incident as a "minor mis-understanding".

At 9pm on Tuesday, Chapra police intercepted a vehicle on the Krishnanagar-Karimpur state highway and confiscated several packets containing 1,703 bottles of cough syrup. While police personnel were loading the confiscated items onto their vans, BSF jawans intervened at the scene and claimed that the area fell under their jurisdiction, demanding custody of the consignment.

FATF note expands asset recovery scope beyond graft, takes leaf from ED

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: The Financial Action Task Force (FATF) has released a new guidance for asset recovery, expanding its scope beyond corruption.

Officials in Delhi said that the global anti-money laundering watchdog has drawn extensively from the work done by the Directorate of Enforcement and multiple instances of action taken by ED have been cited in the guidance note. "The guidance follows the latest of asset recovery beginning with the establishment of solid legal and policy frameworks necessary to facilitate the identification of assets and financial investigations, processes to preserve and manage assets for eventual recovery, and mechanisms for international cooperation to meet the challenges of cross-border assets," said the FATF.

INDIAN PRACTICES IN SPOTLIGHT

Among the multiple examples cited from India's experience is the Agri Gold case where coordination between ED and Andhra Pradesh Crime Investigation Department resulted in the attachment and restoration of assets worth Rs 6.60 crore (Rs 90 million) to victims of an investment fraud. Assets related to real estate developer IREO, which led to the attachment of immovable properties worth around Rs 1,800 crore, equivalent to the proceeds of crime transferred outside India, under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), demonstrated India's use of value-based confiscation, it said.

The guidance also refers to the Fugitive Economic Offenders Act as an example of the doctrine of fugitive disentitlement, enabling confiscation of property belonging to offenders evading judicial process. Under the section on expeditious measures, the guidance presents the case of BITConnect, a crypto exchange, where based on intelligence regarding web wallets and digital devices containing cryptocurrencies, ED seized crypto assets valued at Rs 1,600 crore during search and seizure operations. These virtual assets were then secured in a cold wallet and transferred to movable and immovable properties worth Rs 500 crore were attached.

The guidance also mentions the case of Bhupendra Singh & Others as an instance of international cooperation, between India and the US. ED conducted searches, seizing 39.2 billion value of around Rs 300 crore assets from attaching immovable properties. It also references Indian practices relating to coordination among law enforcement, financial intelligence and tax authorities, use of corresponding value attachment, and application of technology and financial data science in asset tracing and inter-institutional management.

17-year-old medical aspirant found dead in Jaipur hostel

Jaipur: A girl (17) from Dausa, who was taking NEET coaching in Jaipur, was found dead in the hostel on Wednesday. No suicide note was found, but police suspect academic pressure could have made the teen take her own life. According to the girls, the roommate left in the morning and upon her return around 10pm, found the door locked from inside. She received no response despite knocking multiple times, and alerted the hostel warden. When the door was forced open, her roommate was found dead.

Sabarimala theft: HC asks SIT to probe TDB officials, key accused over 19 repairs

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Kochi: Kerala high court on Wednesday directed the special investigation team (SIT) probing the alleged gold theft at Sabarimala temple to investigate the conduct of the Varanasi Devaswam DBO (TDB) officials and prime accused Unnikrishnan Pillai in connection with the 2019 repair of the sreeshoolam (sanctum sanctorum) floor. The court also asked SIT to examine whether provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1948, apply to the TDB officials. In further order an inquiry into TDB's actions in 2025 that allegedly violated HC directives and Devaswam manual, which mandates that any sreeshoolam repair must be supervised by the maintenance department. Pillai was allegedly given freedom to execute the work.

HC observed that main accused Pillai, his wife, with help from conflict officials, took detailed measurements and fabricated replica of sacred artifacts

It said the activities bore resemblance to those of Subhash Kapoor, the International temple art thief who violated HC directives and Devaswam manual, which mandates that any sreeshoolam repair must be supervised by the maintenance department. Pillai was allegedly given freedom to execute the work. HC observed that Pillai and his wife, with help from conflict officials, took detailed measurements and fabricated replica of sacred artifacts, which could be sold in international markets under the guise of temple restoration—a method commonly used by global art smugglers.

The bench of Justices V. Ravi Varma and J. Jayashankar said to conduct a scientific probe to determine the actual gold in 2019. The order came while disposing of a suo moto case based on a report by the Sabarimala Special Commissioner on the unauthorized removal and transport of gold-plated copper coverings of the darashtika Idols to Chennai for maintenance on Sept 3.

UP 'dead' man gets mantri's help to reclaim pension

Neha Lakshminarayanan

Lucknow: A man declared dead in 2018 had been 'revived' by the department of social welfare in Uttar Pradesh, but only after the intervention by the minister concerned. Ram Saran, a resident of Bhojpur village in Mahabubnagar, accepted getting listed as a person in 2018. About a year later, when he was informed that during physical verification for the pension, someone had declared him dead.

The social welfare department has a process of verification under which all pensioners are declared alive or dead for each year. This work is done manually. When Ram Saran's verification was being done, he was declared dead by somebody and therefore his pension was stopped.

Minister Asim Arun told TOI that when he proceeded to take action against the official who was responsible for having declared Saran dead, he was told that Saran was already dead. The official was a deputy undersecretary for another minister.

Boy (16) booked for attempt to strip widow

Pillai: A case was registered against a 16-year-old boy from UP on Tuesday evening for allegedly breaking into a 22-year-old widow's home and trying to strip and rape her. The police initially refused to lodge her complaint and agreed only after Pillai's SSP Abhishek Yadav's intervention. The accused was later taken to court.

In her complaint, she said, "I live alone after my husband's death about two months ago. Around 8:30pm on Oct 27, the accused broke into the house, and tried to pin me to the ground. He then started removing my clothes. I screamed and a few neighbours arrived and caught him."

The police initially refused to lodge her complaint and agreed only after Pillai's SSP Abhishek Yadav's intervention. The accused was later taken to court.
